JOHN WARDELL & SARAH TRACEY

Patriarchal Blessing Of John Wardell

Patriarchal blessing upon the head of John Wardell, son of Thomas Wardell and Elizabeth (Jarrett) Born September 3, 1815, Warwickshire, England, given under the hands of Elisha H. Groves, Patriarch, February 12, 1856, Fort Harmony, Washington, Utah.

Brother John, in the name of Jesus of Nazareth by virtue of the Holy Priesthood in me invested, I place my hands upon thy head to seal upon thee a Patriarchal or Father's blessing which shall rest upon thee and thou shalt realize the fulfillment thereof. Thou hast left thy native land, thy kindred and thy friends, made sacrifice for the gospels which shall return unto thee many fold. Thou must hearken to the counsels of those whom thy Heavenly Father hath placed over thee in the Priesthood to counsel and direct the affairs of the Kingdom of God on earth, keeping all the commandments of the Lord thy God and thy life shall be precious in the sight of thy Heavenly Father. Thy days shall be multiplied upon the earth, thy guardian angel will be with thee. He will not leave nor forsake thee but in his hands thou wilt be borne up and delivered from thy common enemy, the evil one, who has sought to destroy thy peace and to deprive thee of thy blessings. Thou wilt yet be tempted, tried and proven, but thou shalt overcome him and all thy enemies. Thou shalt also assist in the redemption of Zion and the avenging of the blood of innocence upon them that dwell upon the earth. The angel of vengeance will be with thee, will strengthen and nerve thy sinews like unto the sons of Moroni. Thou wilt be delivered in the day of battles. Thy labor will principally be in Zion. Thou hast been brought into privation and want that thou mayest have the power of appreciation, but inasmuch as thou wilt be faithful, thou shalt have the desires of thy heart. Wealth shall flow into thy hands. Thou art the seed of Abraham and of the loins of Joseph and blood of Ephraim – a lawful heir to the Holy Priesthood which thou shalt receive in due time that thou mayest be able to officiate in the ordinances of the House of the Lord in the redemption of thy progenitors, many of whom shall be made known unto thee by the administering of Heavenly Messengers. Thou art a father in Israel. Thy posterity shall multiply and become numerous upon the earth. I seal upon thy head the blessings of thy fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob even unto that of wives and children. Good order shall rest in thy habitation. Thou shalt receive of the dewes of heaven and of the fruits of the earth and all things needful to render life happy and agreeable. Thy last days shall be thy best days. Thou shalt live to a good old age until thou art satisfied with life and shall desire to depart that thou mayest rest for a little season, then come forth in the morning of the resurrection of the just. Thou shalt receive many blessings in the Temple in Zion, be anointed a King and Priest unto the most high God, receive thy crown, dominion, power and eternal increase, thy inheritance with the faithful sons of Ephraim in Zion. These are thy blessings and they shall be sure unto thee. I seal them upon thy head in the name of Jesus of Nazareth even so amen.

Patriarchal Blessing Of Sarah Tracey (Wardell)

Patriarchal blessing upon the head of Sarah Tracey (Tracy) daughter of Samuel Tracey and Sarah Carr. Born January 8, 1814, Worcestershire, England, given under the hands of Elisha H. Groves, Patriarch, February 12, 1856 Fort Harmony, Washington County, Utah.

Sister Sarah in the name of Jesus of Nazareth and by virtue of the Holy Priesthood in me vested, I place my hands upon thy head to seal upon thee a Patriarchal or Father's blessing which shall rest upon thee and thou shalt realize the fulfillment thereof. Thou must hearken to the counsels of those whom thy Heavenly Father hath placed over thee in the Priesthood to counsel and direct the affairs of the Kingdom of God on Earth in humility, keeping all the commandments of the Lord thy God, inasmuch as thou shalt do this thy guardian angel will be with thee. He will not leave nor forsake thee but will deliver thee from thy common enemy the evil one, who seeketh to deprive thee of thy blessings, causing thee to believe that thy companion was not worthy of thee he will seek to deprive thee of thy blessings to destroy thy peace and thy comfort. Thou must humble thyself and look to the Lord thy God with all thy heart that thou shalt obtain power over him and all who would uphold his work. Thou art a daughter of Abraham of the lineage of Judah, through the descent of thy fathers, a lawful heir to all the blessings and powers that pertain to the Holy Priesthood according to thy sex which it is thy privilege to receive in due time that thou mayest be able to stand in thy proper lot and station in the redemption of thy progenitors. Thou art a mother in Israel. Thy posterity shall multiply and become numerous upon the earth. Thy children and thy children's children arising after thee shall administer unto thee in thy old age. They shall bless and comfort thee. It is thy privilege if thou wilt seek it with all thy heart, doubting not, to behold the winding up scene, the coming of the Redeemer, the reign of peace upon the earth. To receive of the blessings of the fruit of the vine and olive yard. To receive blessings and privileges in the Temple in Zion, be anointed a Queen and Priestess unto the most high God, receive thy crown, dominion, powers and eternal increase, which is the reward of the faithful. Yield no more to temptation and these blessings shall be sure unto thee. I seal them upon thy head in the name of Jesus of Nazareth, even so, Amen.

Excerpt From History Of Solomon Wardell And His Wife Ellen Mckell Matheson

Written by their granddaughter, Afton Whitney Hannig

“My grandfather, Solomon Wardle (Wardell) was born 20 July 1841 in Hallgreen, Warwickshire, England. He was the eldest of four children born to John and Sarah (Tracy) Wardle or Wardell. His parents were converted to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in 1847 and left England for America soon after that time. They lived in Illinois and Iowa for several years, then came to Salt Lake City, Utah in the S. Louis Company, arriving 19 August 1853. They lived in Salt Lake City one month, then moved to Parowan, Iron, Utah where they made their home and Solomon grew to manhood.” ■

Sarah Tracey Wardell (Wife of John Wardell)

We know that at some point in time, Sarah Tracey Wardell divorced her husband, John.

We don't know where or when she died. If anyone loves a mystery, we would love to have someone find this information. ■
