JOACHIM STAEHELI & ANNA KATHARINA KREIS

History of Joachim Staeheli

By Judy Rawlins Ball

Anna Barbara Staeheli Tobler's (Barbara) history, their youngest daughter, tells us a little about these ancestors. They lived in a town of one thousand population called Ameriswil, Canton, Thurgau, Switzerland.

Barbara's records show that she was baptized into The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on August 25, 1860. Her parents were probably baptized at around the same time. (Fenton Whitney's notes.) Joachim Staeheli and Anna Katharina Kreis would have been in their early sixties at the time.

Barbara came to America following her baptism in 1861 and was married to Jakob Tobler on October 18, 1861 in the Endowment House.

Her parents immigrated in 1862. Sadly her father, Joachim Staeheli, died while crossing the plains in Florence, Douglas, Nebraska (Winter Quarters) in October 1862.

Her mother, Anna Katharina Kreis, continued across the plains and settled in Santa Clara, Utah where her daughter was living. She died shortly thereafter in March of 1963.

As I learned about these ancestors that sacrificed so much so that I could have the Gospel, the Hymn "Come, Come Ye Saints" came to my mind.

And should we die before our journey's through,
Happy Day! All is well!
We then are free from toil and sorrow, too;
With the just we shall dwell!■
